Picture book exchange meeting

"Who will read to me next?"

If you bring the picture book you have finished reading to the venue on the day of the event, you will be able to take home another book,

You can also bring other picture books to take home with you. Of course, donations are also welcome. Why don't we all join the picture book circle?

You can take home the same number of picture books as you brought.

Please refrain from bringing books that are obviously stained or torn.
